

Ectodermal Dysplasia

You are special!

All kids are different, and so are their teeth. Your teeth maybe growing differently than your friends. That's ok!

Some people's teeth are missing, and others grow into all different shapes and sizes.

Meet your flight team!

You'll have a team of doctors to help you reach new heights – one to watch your mouth grow, another to help keep your teeth super clean, and one that is a tooth artist!

Our Patients. Our Priority.

"OH! THE HEIGHTS YOU WILL GO!"

Opie says...

Brace yourself for adventure!

A lot of kids get braces when they are older. YOU may get them right away and show them off to your friends sooner!

Destination... S-M-I-L-E!

We may take many flights on our search for your perfect teeth. But, when you see your perfect smile, you'll know we've reached our destination!
